INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE OF INFLUENCERS

*“Success consists of going from failure to failure
without loss of enthusiasm.”
– Winston Churchill*

It's been a hard time for me to start from scratch. Where you think, you're a failure at everything you do. I've strived hard but it seemed that I'm not lucky to be that somebody I dreamed of.

*Since I graduated from college, I passed the Licensure Examination in the same year.
But I'm not that lucky to practice what I have studied. It took years and I decided to find another job that is not related to my course, which is to be an OFW. I thought it would give me pleasure and abundant life, but it became worse.*

INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE OF INFLUENCERS

I came home and tried my luck again as a tutor, but it doesn't work also. Then I decided to go to Manila for some adventure and tried my luck again.

I applied in school to pursue my dream to be one of the employees in the Department of Education even though I knew I'm not as good as my co-applicants but still I tried my best.

After two months of waiting for the result, I failed again because I didn't make it. But after weeks it was recomputed and luckily my name was posted as one of the qualified applicants.

✗ “I'm Stuck”

✓ “I'm Being Redirected”

- A closed door isn't a dead end, it's a detour to an even better path.
- Trust that there is a greater plan unfolding,

INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE OF INFLUENCERS

I imagined my life working as a teacher as my dream came true.

My first year in teaching I could say it was really a struggle time. I can't handle my class smoothly. I almost gave up. There was a time my co-teacher bullied me. Gave me task which they knew I can't make it to the deadline and I'm not good in doing it. But still accepted it as a challenge for my ability.

There's an observation in my class which I really don't like the subject I taught, but I learned to handle it after months of teaching and learning.

Perspective is Everything

Discomfort → Growth
Problems → Challenges
Rejection → Redirection
Darkness → Reveals Light
Failures → Lessons
Fears → Teachers
Pain → Power

I took all the challenges for I knew there's a reward after all of these. These opened my eyes to the truth that the life of a teacher is not as easy as they all say. It is full of challenges, hard work, determination, failures, rejection and even depression and anxiety. That is why teaching is the noblest profession.

INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE OF INFLUENCERS

I pursue my Masteral Degree as part of my reward to myself. After I graduated, I enrolled in the International Institute of Influencers and was privileged to encounter an excellent mentor in the person of Dr. Shama Hussain. I took up Master Diploma in Psychology and Guidance and Counselling. In these two topics I really learned a lot from her.

I didn't regret all the sacrifices I faced and all the hardships I've encountered for it changed me a lot in how I looked at the future.

These remind me the story that Dr. Shama shared with us about the old woman who pitched the water with two pots. The one with the holes and the other which is whole. The one which broken was upset because it thought that it didn't help at all to the old woman, but the old woman told to the pot that even you were broken it doesn't mean you were useless on the other hands you can still be useful in other ways.
